Dear Mr Thickett

East Devon Local Plan – Statement of Common Ground with the Cranbrook New Community Partners

I write to advise that the Council has been in discussion with the New Community Partners in seeking to understand issues of common interest in respect of Local Plan and wider matters relating to promoting the future constructive development of the Cranbrook new community.

To this end the Council has signed a Statement of Common Ground with the new community Partners. The Council would wish to submit this statement to you as part of overall Local Plan evidence.

Yours sincerely

Ed Freeman
Service Lead – Planning Strategy and Development Management
