Dear Sirs, On the 24th Oct - I moved into no. 3 Honeycombe Drive, a lovely quiet area I believed it to be, but on closer inspection this road services about 10 other roads & the traffic is non-stop. So you can imagine how I felt when a bombshell letter dropped through my letter-box, THAT you the CC were considering running another estate down this already ~~thorough~~ busy thoroughfare, heaven forbid! While loading rubbish from my garden into my car the traffic came hurtling down & on 3 occasions I had to jump back onto the pavement, demon motorists here. So I can't be seriously contemplating this crazy idea.

The plans show open land moving out towards the A30 this way won't impact anyone except a new slip road onto an already busy road, but not one that is full of O.A.P.'s going about there business.

I ~~would~~ strongly object to your proposal
