Obtaining your personal information

Information about you, as an applicant to our street naming and numbering service, will have been obtained from you and includes your name, address and contact details.

Use of your personal information

We are using your personal information for the purpose of processing your application for street naming and numbering and on the basis of public task and legal obligation under the Public Health Act 1925.

Who will receive or see my personal information?

Your personal information will be available to be seen by those within the relevant service area and within support services (such as the Legal, HR, Insurance and wider Finance Teams and any third party payment handler) where necessary to carry out the purpose

We may share details of the application with our planning enforcement and council tax teams where issues are raised which fall within their area of regulation.

We may also share information with our corporate safety officer when our staff safety is viewed as being at risk. Information may also be shared with partner agencies during safeguarding investigations and for fraud identification and prevention.

Information may be shared with the Environment Agency and the Police where necessary for complaint investigation purposes.

Your personal information will be stored securely and will not be accessible to anyone else, including other services within the Council, unless detailed above.

Retention

All your personal information will be held by us only for as long as is necessary and then in accordance with any legal requirements imposed upon us and the Council's retention schedule which can be found here.

Transferring personal information outside of the EU

Your personal information will not be transferred outside the EU or to any international organisations by the Council. It should be noted that the Council has no control over those accessing its online public registers nor what someone does with any information they obtain from them.

Your rights

Whatever our use of your personal information you have the right of access to that personal information (this means confirmation that we are using your personal information, access to it as well as other detail) and the right to seek rectification if the information is inaccurate.

Where we are processing your personal data on the basis of public task and legal obligation you may have the right to object and the right to restrict processing.

Also, if you object to our use of your personal information and there is no overriding legitimate interest for us to continue using it or we have used your personal information unlawfully or it is no longer necessary for us to have the personal information, the right to erasure is also available to you.

Details on each of these rights can be found on our website here.

Complaints

If you are dissatisfied with the way the Council has used your personal information then you may wish in the first instance to make a complaint to the Data Protection Officer. This can be done by;

Writing to: Data Protection Officer, Information and Complaints, East Devon District Council, Blackdown House, Border Road, Heathpark Industrial Estate, Honiton, EX14 1EJ.
