

Hawkchurch Parish Council supports the plan in general principle. We feel that there will need to be a flexible approach to the percentages of affordable housing against market housing because the situation will vary between different villages.