

Matter 16 Written Statement – Philip Reader (395)

Matter 16 issue23 No such thing as zero carbon. Building regs re insulation are of insufficient standard and have not been raised by Gov. at behest of builders .Therefore substandard buildings are being built. Q193Land should not be reserved for energy provision buildings should provide their own energy as far as possible.

Thank you for reading the above