Farringdon Neighbourhood Plan Decision Statement

Summary

Following an independent examination, East Devon District Council now confirms that the Farringdon Neighbourhood Development Plan will proceed to a Neighbourhood Planning Referendum.

Background

On 9 December 2015, East Devon District Council designated the area comprising the parish of Farringdon as a Neighbourhood Area for the purpose of preparing a Neighbourhood Plan in accordance with Part Two of the Town and Country Planning (England), Neighbourhood Planning (General) Regulations 2012.

Following the submission of the Farringdon Neighbourhood Plan to the Council, the plan was publicised and representations were invited. The publicity period ended on 20 October 2020.

East Devon District Council appointed an independent examiner, David Hogger, to review whether the Plan should proceed to referendum.

The examiner's report concludes that subject to making the minor modifications recommended by the examiner, the Plan meets the basic conditions set out in the legislation and should proceed to a Neighbourhood Planning referendum.

Decision and Reasons

Modifications

11. Page 29 Policy Farr8:

- a. To clarify that this policy does not apply to Crealy Park and to add reference to the glossary, the introductory sentence has been modified to read, “With the exception of Crealy Park (which is addressed in East Devon Local Plan policies E19 and E20), proposals for the development and expansion of tourism related businesses (see Glossary for definition of such businesses) will be supported providing that...”
 - b. Clause a) of the Policy Farr8 also modified to delete the words “(not including Crealy Park)” and clarify the meaning of existing use, to read, “a) the scale of development is small and proportionate to the existing activity (where there is one), and the locality;”

Referendum

The District Council has considered whether to extend the area in which the referendum is to take place. Like the examiner, the District Council has decided that there is no reason to extend the Neighbourhood Plan area for the purpose of holding the referendum.

The examiner has concluded that with the above minor modifications made, the Plan meets the basic conditions and other relevant legal requirements. Therefore, to meet the requirements of the Localism Act 2011 a referendum which poses the question ‘Do you want East Devon District Council to use the Neighbourhood Plan for Farringdon to help it decide planning applications in the neighbourhood area?’ will be held in the parish of Farringdon.

The date on which the referendum will take place is expected to be 6 May 2021 (at the earliest and subject to confirmation). This is due to the Coronavirus Act 2020 and the Local Government and Police and Crime Commissioner (Coronavirus) (Postponement of Elections and Referendums) (England and Wales) Regulations 2020, made in response to the coronavirus crisis, which currently prevents referendums taking place sooner.

Referendum Version of the Plan

A Referendum Version of the Farringdon Neighbourhood Plan, incorporating the changes set out in this Decision Statement, is now available. In accordance with the Government’s Neighbourhood Planning Guidance (updated May 2020), the effect of this Decision Statement is to give the Farringdon Neighbourhood Plan (Referendum Version) significant weight as a material consideration in decision-making on planning applications.
