 - (e) whether the decision was made against the advice of professional staff; or
 - (f) whether the views of the members requesting the call-in were taken into account in arriving at the decision.
 - (v) Stating the reasons for the call-in of the decision.
- 23.5 Once the Proper Officer is satisfied that the request is a valid request, they shall arrange for the JSC to consider the call-in at the next scheduled meeting or if the Proper Officer and Chair of the JSC consider that the matter cannot wait until the next scheduled meeting, the Proper Officer shall convene a JSC as soon possible on a date which is acceptable to the Chair of the JSC.
- 23.6 If having considered the decision, the JSC is still concerned about it, the Committee may refer it back to the JEC for reconsideration, setting out in writing the nature of its concerns.
- 23.7 If referred to the JEC, the JEC shall consider the concerns, amending the decision or not, before adopting a final decision.
- 23.8 Exceptions: In order to ensure that call-in is not abused, nor causes unreasonable delay certain limitations are placed on its use. These are:
- (i) only decisions involving expenditure or reductions in service over a value of £10,000 may be called in;
 - (ii) If in the opinion of the Proper Officer the power of call-in is being abused with the apparent intention of unreasonably disrupting the JEC's decision making process they may refuse to accept any or all requests.

Whether the matter is considered exceptional will be agreed between the Chief Executives and the Leaders and the Chair of the JSC or if not fewer than three quarters of the JSC members consider the matter is exceptional. In those circumstances, the matter will be referred back to the Full Council of each of the Councils.
