

From: Planning Policy
Subject: FW: Chardstock

> On 19 Dec 2022, at 11:52, AlanRoutledge <agram@btinternet.com> wrote:

>

> I am absolutely stunned that yet again consideration is being given to allow and virtually recommend the construction of more houses in this small village.

> The access road into the village is already full at many times in the day. At school time I have to back up and allow perhaps four or five cars to speed through. I have spoken to delivery drivers who consider Chardstock one of the worst places to deliver parcels .

> Since the last review things have got far worse with now every one from Tesco to Amazon clogging up the roads . I stress again things are worse !

> To now suggest that a further 50 or 60 cars and deliveries to another 30 houses is an improvement defies sanity.

> I am sending a copy of this to Paul Hayward who I am sure will forcefully present the feeling of the people who voted for him.

> Alan Routledge

>

>

>

> Sent from my iPad

>