Executive Summary

East Devon District Council commissioned independent research company, Service Insights Ltd, to carry out their 2023/24 Tenant Satisfaction Measures (TSMs) survey. The process followed regulatory TSM guidance and the Market Research Society Code of Conduct.

Based on the feedback from 768 tenants, the following key points can be noted:

- General performance trend: One of the most significant findings was that whilst there is clearly room for improvement (as evidenced through the benchmarking), when East Devon District Council's 2023/24 TSM scores are compared to their 2022/23 TSM baseline survey, the vast majority of TSM scores can be seen to have improved over time. This is set against a wider 5-year trend of declining satisfaction trends, as evidenced by Housemark's mid-year TSM analysis in November 2023.
- Overall satisfaction [TP01]: This is often used as the main headline measure of service performance. In 2023/24, East Devon District Council achieved a score of 52.7%.
- Highest scoring TSMs: With the exception of TP01, the top scoring service areas were identified as:
 - TP05: 57.4% - Satisfaction that the home is safe
 - TP08: 56.2% - Agreement that the landlord treats tenants fairly and with respect
 - TP02: 51.5% - Satisfaction with repairs
- Lowest scoring TSMs / high dissatisfaction: The lowest satisfaction was seen with complaints handling (20.2% satisfied). Additionally, it is worth noting that 65.7% of respondents stated they were 'very dissatisfied'.
- Benchmarking: When benchmarking overall satisfaction against Housemark's mid-year TSM scores, a -19.6% difference can be seen.
- Identifying what drives overall satisfaction: Based on the results, the top three service areas driving overall satisfaction in East Devon District Council are:
 - TP04: Satisfaction that the home is well maintained
 - TP06: Satisfaction that the landlord listens to tenant views and acts upon them
 - TP02: Satisfaction with repairs

Conclusions: Based on feedback received from the 2023/24 TSM survey, the findings suggest that whilst there are elements which are more promising than others (e.g. that East Devon District Council providing a home that is safe - the highest score TSM measure received), there is clearly room for improvement. However, the fact that improvements in satisfaction have been achieved between the 2022/23 baseline survey and 2023/24 TSM survey are very encouraging.

Recommendations: Consideration could be given to the following recommendations.

- 1) Focussing upon the top three key satisfaction drivers will help increase satisfaction for the majority of tenants over time, whilst consideration should also be given to areas of low satisfaction (specifically complaints handling).
- 2) Clearly communicate the TSM findings to both staff and tenants. Publish the TSM scores alongside a summary of future actions (e.g. on a single webpage).
- 3) Involve tenants in a small number of focus groups to better understand the context of their feedback and develop suggestions in a co-created action plan with staff.

3. Results

NOTE: This report presents detailed scores to one decimal place. Please note that percentage scores may not always add up to 100%. For example, three equal responses would give percentages of 33.3% each, giving 99.9%. All results shown are weighted scores.

3.1. [TP01] Overall satisfaction

Overall satisfaction is often seen as the key measure of service performance, as perceived by tenants in receipt of services provided. Tenants were asked, “Taking everything into account, how satisfied or dissatisfied are you with the housing services provided by East Devon District Council?”. Figures 4 and 5 show that a total of 52.7% (405 respondents) were satisfied, compared to a total of 31.9% (227 respondents) who were dissatisfied, and a further 15.3% (111 respondents) who were neither satisfied nor dissatisfied.

Additionally, sub-group analysis for overall satisfaction can be seen in Appendix 1 at the end of the report.

3.2. [TP02] Satisfaction with repairs

Tenants were asked, “Has East Devon District Council carried out a repair to your home in the last 12 months?”. A total of 70.6% (542 respondents) stated ‘Yes’ compared to 29.4% (226 respondents) who stated ‘No’.

Those who stated ‘Yes’ were then asked, “How satisfied or dissatisfied are you with the overall repairs service from East Devon District Council over the last 12 months?”. Figures 6 and 7 show that a total of 51.5% (276 respondents) were satisfied, compared to a total of 36.1% (193 respondents) dissatisfied, and a further 12.4% (66 respondents) who were neither satisfied nor dissatisfied.

3.3. [TP03] Satisfaction with the time taken to complete the most recent repair

Of those tenants who previously stated they had a repair carried out to their home in the last 12 months, tenants were then asked, “How satisfied or dissatisfied are you with the time taken to complete your most recent repair after you reported it?”.

Figures 8 and 9 show shows that a total of 46.0% (245 respondents) were satisfied, compared to a total of 44.6% (238 respondents) dissatisfied, and a further 9.3% (50 respondents) who were neither satisfied nor dissatisfied.

4. Further analysis

4.1. Key driver analysis

Customer satisfaction can provide great insight into tenants' perspectives and their experiences with services. Key driver analysis takes this insight a step further by exploring the relationships between different aspects of service to better understand what most influences overall customer satisfaction.

When exploring the question of 'what influences overall satisfaction?' this can be achieved by undertaking a correlation analysis (known as a Pearson's r) of the relationship between overall satisfaction and each of the other core variables in the survey. The correlation will determine a value between +1 and -1, whereby the closer to +1 or -1 the value is, the larger the actual relationship or effect is (positively or negatively).

In statistics, it is generally accepted that the following scale can be used to estimate the effect size:

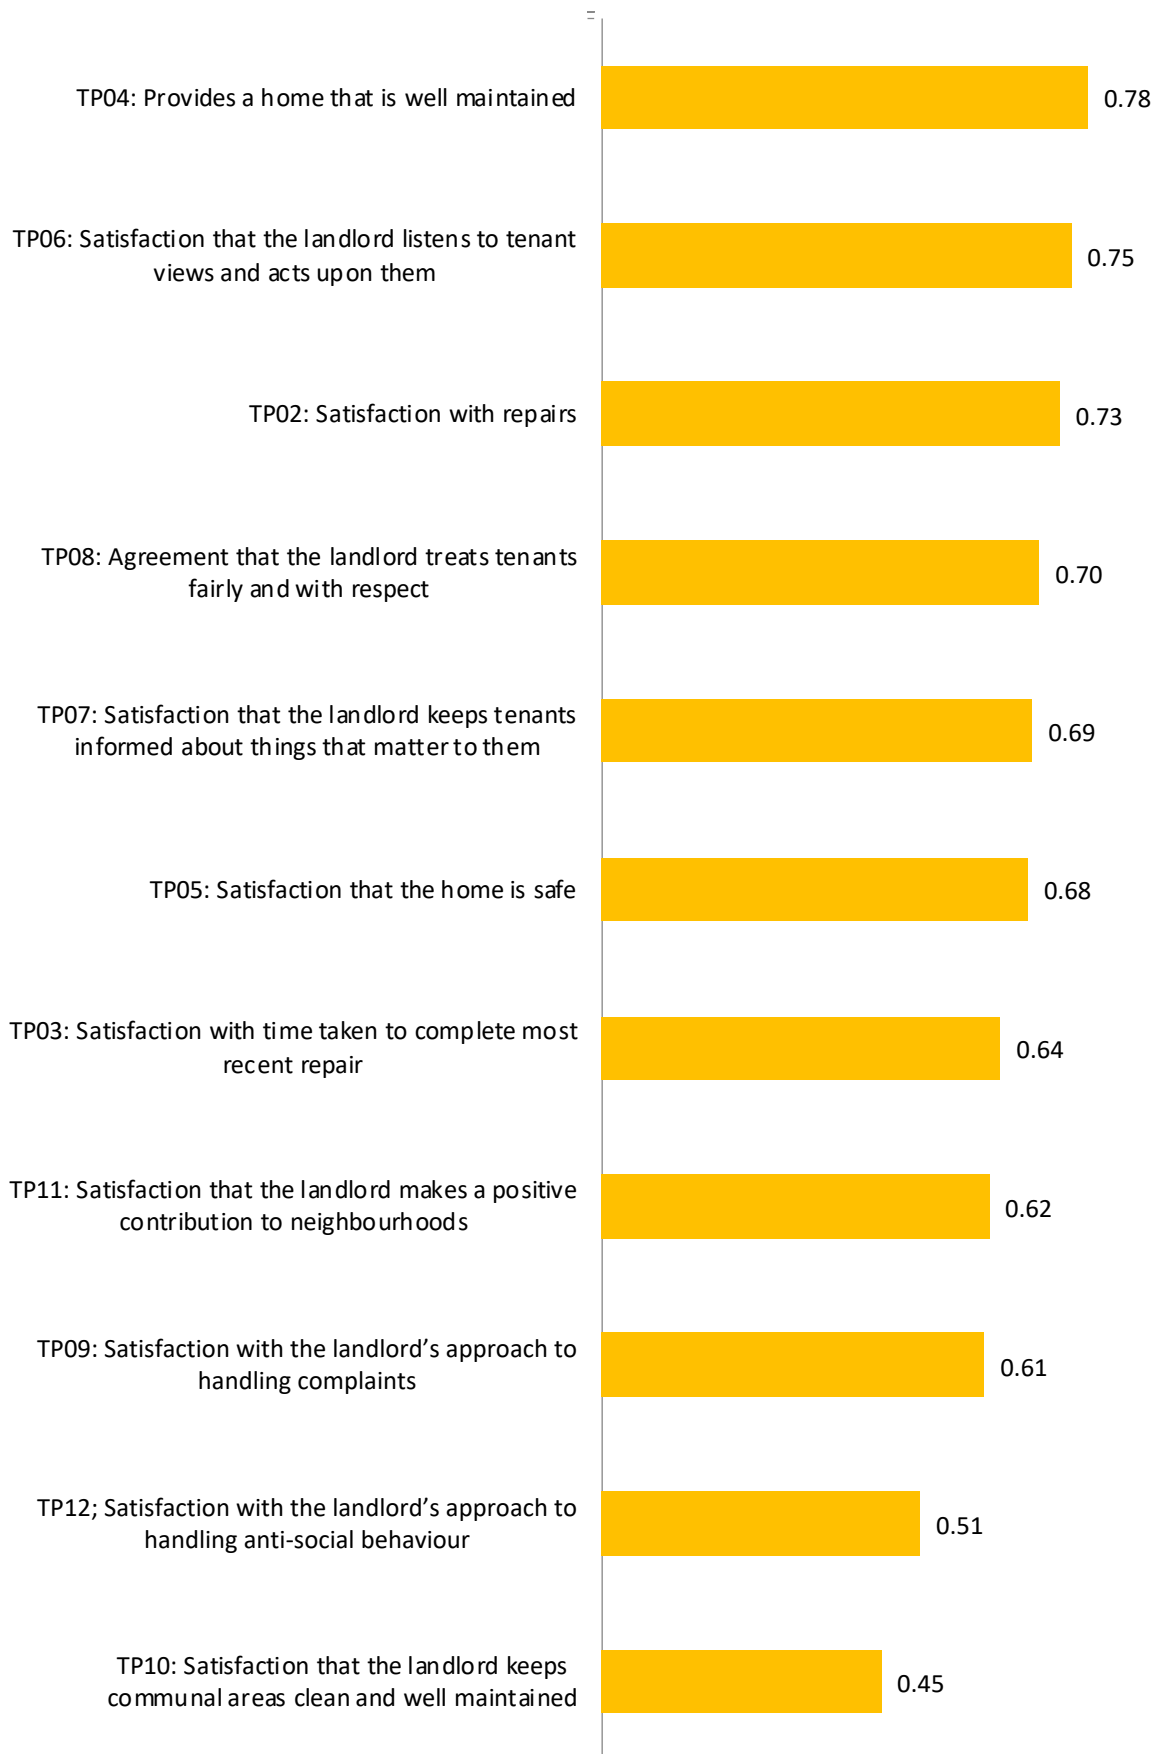

If $r = +/- .5$ it has a large effect
 If $r = +/- .3$ it has a medium effect
 If $r = +/- .1$ it has a small effect

When looking at the key driver results for East Devon District Council (Figure 28, seen over the page), it is firstly worth noting that all the items demonstrate a positive influence on overall satisfaction.

Secondly, when considering the three highest ranking TSM items (i.e. those services or elements of service which reflect the greatest influence on overall satisfaction), this identifies TP04: Satisfaction that the home is well maintained, TP06: Satisfaction that the landlord listens to tenant views and acts upon them, and TP02: Satisfaction with repairs. Investing time and energy in these areas of service will help drive overall satisfaction for the majority of tenants.

Thirdly and finally, whilst TP09: Satisfaction with the landlord's approach to handling complaints achieved a low satisfaction score, Figure 28 suggests that complaints handling is relatively speaking not a strong driver of overall satisfaction for the majority of tenants compared to other service factors. Despite this, complaints handling should still be considered as an essential element of any service offer due to the importance of quickly resolving service failures for tenants whilst presenting opportunities to integrate longer term learning for the organisation.

4.2. Benchmarking comparison: Mid-year scores

When benchmarking East Devon District Council's scores against the most recent TSM survey data available from Housemark's mid-year TSM scores (Figure 29), this identifies a -19.6% difference between the overall satisfaction score and mid-year median.

Measure	Mid-year median (November 2023)	EDDC 2023/24 TSM scores	Difference

TP12: Proportion of respondents who report that they are satisfied with East Devon District Council's approach to handling anti-social behaviour	57.6%	36.4%	21.2%

4.3. Benchmarking comparison: Landlord type

Consideration can also be given to benchmarking against Housemark’s mid-year report for landlord type (Figure 30). It is worth noting that while the quality of service is key, the landlord’s operating context - its size, type, location, and tenant population – will also influence results.

For this measure, a -16% difference can be seen when comparing East Devon District Council to Local Authorities.

4.4. Historical comparison: Wider sector and East Devon District Council TSM trends

When considering wider overall satisfaction scores in Housemark’s mid-year report (Figure 31), it can be seen that satisfaction has been declining over the last five years. Although a number of factors may have influenced this trend (Covid, economic downturn, cost of living and energy crisis, etc...), fundamentally landlords are failing to consistently meet the needs of tenants.

When directly comparing East Devon District Council scores over time, 11 out of the 12 TSM measures can be seen to have increased over time (Figure 32, seen over the page).

This suggests that whilst there are improvements to be made, the Council is not currently following the wider declining trends in satisfaction as seen previously in Figure 31.

4.5. Additional questions: Repairs process

A total of six additional questions were added to the questionnaire, and followed on from TP02 (satisfaction with repairs) and TP03 (satisfaction with the time taken to complete the repair).

This group of respondents were asked, “Please now think about the last time East Devon District Council Housing Service carried out a repair to your home. How satisfied or dissatisfied you were with the following:” followed by the six repairs service attributes seen in Figure 33.

From this, it is interesting to note that 5 of the 6 repairs additional service attributes rank higher than overall satisfaction for all tenants. However, it can be noted that two scores are lower: ‘being kept informed throughout the process’ and ‘satisfaction with the time taken to complete the most recent repair’ [TP03].

	Satisfaction	Count
Overall Satisfaction (all respondents) [TP01]	52.7%	768
Satisfaction with repairs [TP02]	51.5%	276
Satisfaction with the time taken to complete the most recent repair [TP03]	46.0%	245
The quality of customer services when reporting a repair	62.7%	534

Keeping dirt and mess to a minimum	76.3%	527
The quality of the repair	62.0%	531
Being kept informed throughout the process	51.6%	527

5. Conclusions and recommendations

This report has presented feedback from East Devon District Council's 2023/24 TSM survey. The process followed regulatory TSM guidance and the Market Research Society Code of Conduct. Based on the feedback gained, the following conclusions can be noted:

- General performance trend: One of the most significant findings was that whilst there is clearly room for improvement (as evidenced through the benchmarking), when East Devon District Council's 2023/24 TSM scores are compared to their 2022/23 TSM baseline survey, the vast majority of TSM scores can be seen to have improved over time. This is set against a wider 5-year trend of declining satisfaction trends, as evidenced by Housemark's mid-year TSM analysis in November 2023.
- Overall satisfaction [TP01]: This is often used as the main headline measure of service performance. In 2023/24, East Devon District Council achieved a score of 52.7%.
- Highest scoring TSMs: With the exception of TP01, the top scoring service areas were identified as:
 - TP05: 57.4% - Satisfaction that the home is safe
 - TP08: 56.2% - Agreement that the landlord treats tenants fairly and with respect
 - TP02: 51.5% - Satisfaction with repairs
- Lowest scoring TSMs / high dissatisfaction: The lowest satisfaction was seen with complaints handling (20.2% satisfied). Additionally, it is worth noting that 65.7% of respondents stated they were 'very dissatisfied'.
- Benchmarking: When benchmarking overall satisfaction against Housemark's mid-year TSM scores, a -19.6% difference can be seen.
- Identifying what drives overall satisfaction: Based on the results, the top three service areas driving overall satisfaction in East Devon District Council are:
 - TP04: Satisfaction that the home is well maintained
 - TP06: Satisfaction that the landlord listens to tenant views and acts upon them
 - TP02: Satisfaction with repairs

Conclusions: Based on feedback received from the 2023/24 TSM survey, the findings suggest that whilst there are elements which are more promising than others (e.g. that East Devon District Council providing a home that is safe - the highest score TSM measure received), there is clearly room for improvement. However, the fact that improvements in satisfaction have been achieved between the 2022/23 baseline survey and 2023/24 TSM survey are very encouraging.

Recommendations: Consideration could be given to the following recommendations.

- 1) Focussing upon the top three key satisfaction drivers will help increase satisfaction for the majority of tenants over time, whilst consideration should also be given to areas of low satisfaction (specifically complaints handling).
- 2) Clearly communicate the TSM findings to both staff and tenants. Publish the TSM scores alongside a summary of future actions (e.g. on a single webpage).
- 3) Involve tenants in a small number of focus groups to better understand the context of their feedback and develop suggestions in a co-created action plan with staff.
